

Concept Validation

Name of person: _____

Come up with three questions to ask the customer.

1.

2.

3.

What did the person like about your business concept?

What suggestions did the person have for improving your business concept?

What is the most important thing that you learned from the concept validation and how will you use this information in the future process